Payment Methods and Confirmation (Common)

1. Payment Methods

a. Transfer the full amount of tuition (including other payments) to the individual Hana Bank account designated on the tuition bill through any nationwide bank, ATM, Internet banking, or phone banking.

-Divided transfers are unavailable. Students must check their transfer limits beforehand (e.g., ATM limit for each transfer and Internet banking transfer limits).

-Transfers through other banks may incur transfer fees.

b. The remitter does not have to be the student, but payment must be made via the student's virtual account*.

c. If a full scholarship student does not select an optional payment item (actual billing amount: KRW 0), the student must visit Hana Bank in person.

*Virtual Account: KU assigns a virtual account number to each student. If the amount deposited in the virtual account matches the tuition billing amount, the tuition payment process for the student is automatically completed.

Banking procedure

◎ Hana Bank Internet Banking

Hana Bank website→ Individual Internet Banking Certificate Login→ Bills→ College Tuition Fee→ Select a School→ Type Student ID Number
